mean disaster to it. Before the Vermont election I promised to go into Maine and make a few speeches. I would not have made the promise had I been satisfied that Vermont Democrats would do so grandly, but I propose to go into Maine and discuss this great issue with my Democratic friends there. Daniel G. Griffin spoke for an hour, reviewing the Indianapolis Convention.

PALMER AND BUCKNER NOTIFICATION. Louisville, Ky., Sept. 4.-The Palmer and Buckner notification meeting will probably be held in the Auditorium, at Fourth and Hill sts. The theatre has a seating capacity of 3,500 and stand ing-room for 1,500. The notification will be followed by a big ratification on the night of September 15 or 16. As Bryan speaks here on September 14, his speech will be sandwiched between the two big sound-money demonstrations.

BRAGG NOT SORE IN DEFEAT. Indianapolis, Sept. 4.-General Edward S. Bragg. Wisqonsin, goes away from at least one National veluten without any feeling of resentment or thatien for the highest office in the gift of the ordfield, although the defeated candidate for nomthe United States, General Bragg reatils his defeat as due in a large measure to the mistorium of geographical location, for, had the Presidential situations in Illinois and Wisconsin been leversed, he thinks he would have been the of the Convention. General Bragg has no charges of treachery to make. Some people have n inclined to believe that Senator Vilas was been inclined to believe that Senator Vilas was not as enthusiastic as he might have been in support of the General, and that he was at heart opposed to his nomination. It is certain, however, that Mr. Vilas did nothing to interfere with the success of the movement in General Brarg's behalf. General Palmer came to Indianapolis as a Brarg man, and General Brarg had the public assurance of the former that he would not permit the u.g. of his name. He did not permit it, but he was nominated in spite of that, and General Brarg does hat feel that he violated any ethical principle in auterpting the nomination under the circumstances.

Chicago, Sept. 7 .- A representative of the United Associated Presses asked Mr. Bryan to-night to say something about the nomination of Senator Palmer and Governor Buckner by the Sound-Money Deme

GENERAL PALMER'S HOME RECEPTION.

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 4.-An informal but hearty ception was given United States Senator John M. Palmer on his return home from Indianapolis. though the reception was under the auspices of the local Sound-Money Democratic Club, it was nonpartisan inits nature. Senator and Mrs. Palmer were met at Hopolis by a committee of citizens of all was showered with roses thrown by the women on the platform, and the compilment was gracefully acknowledged by him. The party were taken in two carringes, each drawn by four magnificent black carriages, each drawn by four magnificent black horses, and, followed by about 1,000 citizens marching behind the watch factory band, proceeded to General Pulmer's house, where State Senator M. P. Shumway in a few appropriate words welcomed the nominee in the name of his neighbors and congratulated him upon his nomination. General Palmer responded briefly, saying that he felt that this demonstration in his honor was a purely non-partisan expression of neighborly regard, and not even his nomination at Indianapolis was so pleasing to him. He felt, he said, that he had been appointed a leader by a representative gathering and to uphold a principle very dear to him. After a hearty three cheers, the crowd dispersed.

PALMER A STRONG MAN, SAYS MR. HANNA. Cleveland, Sept. 4.-M. A. Hanna, chairman of the National Republican Executive Committee, spent to-day in this city. Asked his views of the ticket nominated by the Sound-Money Democrats at Indianapolis, Mr. Hanna said: I think the action of the Convention will be of assistance to us. Senator Palmer is a strong, reliable man, and has a heavy following among the Democrats of Illinois. His nomination, following that of a gold-standard Democrat for Governor in that State, will weaken the forces of the other Democrats in Illinois very materially."

Mr. Hanna thought the nomination of General Buckner would also help the Republicans.

Regarding the Vermont election, Mr. Hanna said it indicated that the people as a whole will repudiate the Chicago platform.

THEY ARE FOR SOUND MONEY.

HARDLY A TRAVELLING MAN WHO IS NOT OF-POSED TO THE CHICAGO PROGRAMME.

Washington, Sept. 4 (Special).-The commercial body of intelligent, active and alert business men. ably there are fewer drones or dullards among them than among any other like number of men engaged in any occupation. It is well known that a very large majority-some of them say and besound-money men, most of whom favor the Re publican national ticket.

Among the callers at the headquarters of the resentative of one of the largest wholesale houses in the United States, a firm which employs hundreds of travelling salesmen. "I find in the course of my travels," he said, "that the travelling men times politics is talked almost as much as business, and in some cases, as I have found to my sorrow, it is talked in lieu of business. I think the travelling men are advocates of sound money, not because they know that to preach this doctrine would be acceptable to their employers, but because their own experience, their own practical knowledge of husiness affairs, their acquaintance with the most minute details of the commerce and manufactures of the country convince them that the best interests of the United States will not be served by the election of the Bryan tleket. It is true, no doubt, that the great commercial firms, having ramifications in every State and section, are wielding their influence in behalf of the sound-money ticket. times politics is talked almost as much as business, their influence in behalf of the sound-money ticket.

"I can say, and without egotism, for I refer to the travelling men as a body, that they do wield an influence in business circles. They are the direct link of communication between urban and suburban interests. They do more to disseminate ideas, opinions and information than any other power does except the press. They might be called interstate carriers of news. As a rule, their opinions and utterances are received with consideration, and carry weight with them. My belief is that the enlistment of the sympathies and active efforts of the commercial travellets of the United States in behalf of sound money, as is now the case, will make many votes for the McKinley ticket."

TEXAS SOUND MONEY DEMOCRATS.

IT IS SAID THAT MANY OF THEM WILL VOTE FOR M'KINLEY.

Austin, Tex., Sept. 4.-The Indianapolis platform and candidates give supreme satisfaction to Sound-Money Democrats here. In a canvass to-day, however, it was noticable that while all heartly ap-proved the action of the convention, at least four-fifths of them will vote for McKinley, believing that it will be the surest way to defeat Bryan.

DANIEL JACKSON CLUB MEETING.

About one hundred and fifty Republicans of the XIXth Assembly District met last night in the rooms of the Daniel Jackson Club, Sixty-sixth-st. nee for re-election in the XIVth Congress District. and Robert Mazet, the candidate for the Assembly of the district, made addresses explaining the differences between the Republican and Populistic platforms, and telling why all workmen should vote for an honest dollar. It was the regular meeting night of the Irish-American Club of the district, and as soon as the members convened in their rooms, at No. 20 West Sixty-third-st, they adjourned to swen the numbers at the Jackson Club's weeting.

A BANNER AND TRANSPARENCY RAISED. The Union Republican Club of the XXXIII As-sembly District held a meeting last night at its clubhouse, at Lexington-ave, and One-hundred-and-fourth-st., to ratify the nominations made at Saratoga and to celebrate the raising of a McKinley and Habart banner on the front of the house. A new transparency was also raised. The front of the build-ing was gayly decorated with Japanese lanterns. About two hundred men in the pariors listened to campaign talk from John Sabine Smith and others.

WORRIED BY THE SUCCESS OF THE IND-IANAPOLIS CONVENTION.

VERMONT AND THE GOLD CONVENTION GIVE THEM MUCH TO THINK ABOUT-TALKING BIG TO COVER THEIR TREPIDATION.

INV TRUEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE. Washington, Sept. 4.—The Popceratic managers in Washington are not happy or cheerful these days, and it is exceedingly difficult for them even to "look pleasant." They were wofully disappointed by the result of the Vermont State election after the cheerful assurances and predictions they had received from George Fred Williams and other Popocratic prophets, and they had not time to recover from that blow before they were confronted by the news from Indianapolis. For weeks they had been prophesying that the Indianapolis Convention would be a failure—'a fizzle that would excite only ontempt and ridicule"-and deriding the claim that the would be a representative body. Senator Faulk-ner and his associates in Washington have sud-denly realized their mistake, and they are now forced to admit that the Indianapolis Convention and its ticket will have a potential effect in the

That this is the fact is betrayed by some of the hints dropped at the Popocratic Headquarters today by men who no longer ago than yesterday were privately saying among themselves that Bryan had "lost his head" and was saying things in his speeches that would do him and his cause serious if not irreparable injury. For example, Secretary Edgerton of the Populist branch of the Popocratic combination denounces General Palmer as a renegade and a trickster, and Chairman Faulkner of the Democratic branch of the same combination darkly hints that General Palmer, as a Unior commander in Kentucky thirty years ago, did things for which the Demcerats of that State will never forgive him and which make it a rank insult for him to ask their suffrages. Such utterances and hints indicate the real feelings and actual fears of the Popocratic managers in Washingtonfeelings and fears which are keenly aggravated by the attitude and expressions of members of President Cleveland's Cabinet who are in Washing-They had almost persuaded themselves int the belief that Secretary Francis would not openly oppose the Chicago ticket-and were confident he would at least remain non-committal and neu-tral-and his frank, prompt declaration that he will support the Indianapolis ticket has not only dumfounded but unnerved them.

The attitude of Secretary Carlisle has also caused them a great deal of uneasiness, which has been im-measurably increased by his outspoken approval of the Indianapolis ticket. They fear that his resentment on account of the personal attacks upon him by the Popocratic candidate for the Presidency and his supporters will impel the Secretary of the Treas-ury to take the field in person in Kentucky and rally his friends to the support of Palmer and Buckner. Mr. Carlisle has already said privately that in his opinion a Sound Money Democratic electoral ticket would receive at least 50,000 votes in that State, and since he did so his course has been watched with greater anxiety than ever by the Popocratic managers. Of course, in talking for publication they try to disguise their real feelings and fears. For example, in speaking of the Indian apolis ticket, Chairman Faulkner of the Democratic Congress Committee said:

"I know both gentlemen very well. Senator Palmer is a nice old gentleman. I am fond of him peronally; and General Buckner represents the blue blood element-a very fine man in every respect. The only wisdom I can see that the bolting Democrats have exercised in their efforts to build up Mc-Kinley is in selecting two persons to lead a forlorn hope who, in the province of God, cannot expect any future or present political preferment, or the gratifi cation of their ambitions."

Representative McMillin expressed himself as fol-"I am a Democrat who is patriotic enough to wish well both to his party and his country. am a Kentuckian, and therefore from Governor Buckner's own State. No ticket that is put up to defeat Democracy can win in the country. Therefore the ticket put up is doomed to defeat. Bryan has been making, is making and will make a wo lleve, nine-tenths-of the commercial travellers are derful presentation of the principles of Democracy.

shows with calliones may be organized to defeat him."

Representative Richardson did not believe the Pop-shows with calliopen may be organized to defeat him."

Representative Richardson did not believe the Popocrats would be hurt. "In my judgment," he said, "the ticket was not nominated to be voted for, and the reason I say this is that the leading delegates there have said their object is to defeat Bryan. They think their paramount object, his defeat, will be easiest accomplished by naming this ticket, hoping it will get the votes of a few dissatished Democrats who wish his defeat, but who are unwilling to support McKinley. The manly course would have been to have made no nominations and indorsed McKinley. The ticket will have no effect on the Bryan followers in the direction they anticipate. The people cannot be fooled by masquerades in this campaign."

Secretary Edgerton, of the Populist National Committee, said. "I know this much: General Palmer was elected Senator by two Populist votes, and the understanding of the men who voted for and elected him was that he would support free silver. Had they not been given to understand this he would never have been elected to the Senate. The ticket, however, will exercise very little influence in the campaign. These men do not intend to vote their own ticket. They will vote for McKinley."

Secretary Diffenderfer, of the Silver party, who returned from Philadelphia this morning, did not regard the matter, he said, as of enough importance to worry anybody or to talk about.

The Republican Congress Committee said: "The ticket nominated is a strong and able one. The Convention which put out the ticket will go down in history as one of the most representative ever held in this country. Those who throw cold water upon the movement make a mistake. History teaches that all great movements actuated by a principle, as in the present and indiana and Kentucky. We have never had a doubt as to the result in Illinois, Indiana and Kentucky, but if we had it would be removed now."

Secretary Mercer thought the Democrats ought to be satisfied. They would have no trouble about voting. If,

COMMENTS ON THE NEW TICKET.

Chicago, Sept. 4.-The nomination of General Palmer for President and of General Buckner for Vice-President by the Sound-Money Democratic National Convention was favorably commented upon at Republican headquarters. Chairman Hahn of the Speakers' Bureau declared the ticket as strong as the Democrats could have made it." and added that, if the nominations had been made and added that, it the remainders had been made by the united Democracy, he would consider it a very strong ticket. At Democrati: National headquarters Chairman Jones replied as follows to inquiries as to his opin-ion of the new ticket: "I did not nominate Senator Palmer; I don't know anything about it, and care much less. That is all I have to say about the matter."

GENERAL BUCKNER'S WELCOME HOME. Louisville, Ky., Sept. 4.-General Simon Bolivar Buckner, the National Democratic nominee for this morning on a special train which brought the tions. Headed by the Alabama delegation's band, the different delegations formed in line and excerteex-Governor Buckner to the Willard Hotel. General Buckner walked just behind the band, escorted by Judge Falkner and ex-Governor Jones of Alabama. The party was loudly cheered during the march and a big crowd soon gathered at the hotel. Everybody tried to shake hands with General Buckne body tried to shake hands with General Buckner and he was called on for a speech. One man yeller for Bryan, and the crowd put him out of the hote lobby. General Buckner thanked the crowd for its welcome, and then retired to his apartments. The Southern delegates then proceeded to screnade the

WORK AT HEADQUARTERS.

SENATOR QUAY KEPT PRETTY BUSY. CALLERS AND WHAT THEY REPORT-ASSIGN-MENTS OF SPEAKERS.

A meeting of the Executive Committee to arrange details in the management of campaign work by Scnator Quay was held at the headquarters of the Republican National Committee yesterday. Mr. Quay has entered into his work with a zehl that keeps him busy every moment of his time at headquarters, and it does not stop there. When he re-turns to the Waldorf after a day's work he has consultations with Republicans from various parts of the country. He made appointments yesterday with Southern and Western leaders whom he will consult in regard to the campaign in their respective localities. Among the callers at headquarters yesterday who conferred with Senator Quay was Thomas C. Platt. He remained half an hour. W. T. Durbin, member of the Executive Committee from Indiana, also had a consultation with Mr. Quay.

It was said yesterday that Mr. Hanna would not return to New-York for ten days. According to Henry C. Brewster, member of Con gress from Rochester, N. Y., and a caller at head-quarters yesterday, the Republicans "have the Bryan crowd on the run." He said: "In my district many Democrats are openly supporting McKinley, and there are many more Democrats who will vote for him who are keeping quiet One of the most prominent Democrats in Rochester, whose name would be familiar to everybody should I mention it, is openly for McKinley, and estimates his majority in New-York at 250,000. In my opinion the farmers of New-York are not for Bryan."

James A. Gary, of Maryland, another visitor at headquarters, said that the people of Maryland were as honest as the people of Vermont, and that they would give as good proof of it in November. Mr. Gary was a member of the National Committee for sixteen years. "I believe," said he, "that Maryland, which went Republican last year for the first time and elected Lowndes, its first Republican Governor, by 19,000 plurality, will do much better than that this fall. I look for a majority of from 29,000 to

"Long on wind and short on facts," was the way in which ex-Senator J. Sloat Fassett characterized Bryanism yesterday.

"These silver speakers," he said, "from Bryan down, have an enormous mass of 'facts' which are not true. They have a wonderful supply of misin-formation, but that does not appear to bother them any. They talk their theories glibly, and, in a measure, attractively, but experience, history and statistics are all against them, and the people are going to realize that fully before the campaign is over. Cheap money means cheap labor. That fact cannot be escaped. Lt Hung Chang said that this country needed cheap labor. He knows well enough that it goes with cheap money. The miserable pittance his subjects receive even for skilled labor is proof of that, and it is worth thinking over by those who are tempted by the silver balt."

Regarding the Governorship in this State, Mr. Fassett said: "Mr. Black's nomination is an excellent one. It was a happy outcome of a difficult situation. Our party will poll its full strength for

The mail was again heavy yesterday, conveying advices to headquarters of the excellent prospects for Republican victory throughout the country. One letter from a Colorado Republican said:

"Naturally, we in Colorado favor the free and unlimited coinage of silver provided it can be had with-

"Naturally, we in Colorado favor the free and unlimited coinage of silver provided it can be had without detriment to the business interests of the country. but we cannot afford to vote the Democratic ticket, with the dangerous and revolutionary doctrines thereby indorsed."

Encouraging reports regarding the progress of the Republican campaign in the fighting ground of the West were made by General George E. Leighton, of St. Louis, who said at headquarters:

"I believe the campaign is steadily going our way, and that nowhere is better progress made than in those very States where the silverites have made their stoutest claims. Iowa is all sound, Kansas looks well and we are hopeful in Missouri."

Robert P. Porter, Editor of "The Cieveland World," was one of the visiters at headquarters. He recently made a trip through Wisconsin and Minnesota, and said regarding his observations:

"The first thing noticeable out there is business depression. The basis of that is the evil currency agitation. But the tariff question also figures in it. There are business and industrial enterprises there that trebled their capacity between 1850 and 1850, but are new at a standstill, waiting the result of the election. If McKinley is elected the enterprises will at once start up without waiting for any legislation, as confidence will be immediately re-established.

Among the assignments of speakers made by General Clayton was Congressman John Dalzell, of Pittsburg, to speak in Rutherford, N. J., on September 1 and a few days later at Trenton, where a great meeting is to be held to open formally the campaign in New Jersey. John R. Van Wormer, of this city, will speak in Maine next week. General Adam E. King has been assigned to West Virginia and Virginia. As another evidence of the truth that the crowds which gathered in Chautaquaya County where Hryan spoke most of those present wore the golden rod, the emblem adopted by the sound-money people in opposition to Bityanism.

The Sixteenth Ward Battery, two hundred strong under command of Captain George Market, paraded through the streets of Williamsburg last night. All along the line of the parade the march ers were greeted with cheers, and fireworks and colored lights illuminated the streets, the battery being one of the most popular organizations in the ward. After shouting themselves hoarse for their choice for President and Vice-President the memhers of the battery and their friends went to their bers of the battery and their friends went to their new quarters, where they listened to speeches by captain Market, ex-Supervisor Schoettler, Philip Albohn and John Graham.

Not to be outdone by the battery, the regular organization of the ward swing to the breeze, accompanied by the music of a brass band, a hand-some McKinley and Hobait banner. The banner-raising took place in front of the organization's headquarters, at No. 73 Meserole-st., and was wit-nessed by a large and enthusiastic gathering.

COLORED REPUBLICANS MEET.

A meeting of the Colored Republican County Or. ganization was held last night at No. 114 West Fifty-third-st. Its object was to ratify the National and county Republican tickets. Charles F. Butler presided, and speeches were made by him, Calet Simms and others, indorsing the tickets. It was decided to hold a big ratification mass-meeting between cided to hold a fig ratification mass-meeting between the 10th and 25th of this month, either in Carnegie Music Hall or in Lyric Hall. The exact date of the meeting will be determined later on. It was thought that Chairr an Edward Lauterbach would be pres-ent at last night's meeting, but he sent word that he was unable to attend owing to a previous engage-

Boswell, the treasurer of the association, who is in Broadway, gave a brief talk, in which she expressed herself as highly pleased at the manner in which the campaign has been conducted so far.

Mrs. Burns, who is chairman of the committee on work in the tenement-house district, also spoke of the success that she had met with. Mrs. Burns is making a canvass from house to house through the poor districts, distributing tracts prepared under the supervision of Mrs. Cornellus S. Robinson. Mrs. William H. Trafton, Mrs. James G. Wentz, Mrs. Hertha Welby, Mrs. James Freeman, Miss Mildred Reid and Mrs Lockwood were present. Meetings will be held weekly through the campaign.

A REPUBLICAN HOUSEWARMING.

The East Side Young Men's Republican Club held a housewarming last night in the clubrooms, No. 8i Eldridge-st. Louis Friedel, president of the club, presided. The speaker of the evening was ex-Police Commissioner Charles H. Marray. Speecher were also myle by Assemblyman Charles F Adler, Frank J. Mar.in, Samuel C Saim and a number of others. An verflow meeting was held in the street in frost of the clubrooms.

TO-NIGHT'S BIG MASS-MEETING.

THE ARRANGEMENTS-MANY PROMINENT MEN TO BE PRESENT.

For several days preparations have been made for the large meeting to be held to-night in Cooper Union, under the management of the Republican Club, of No. 459 Fifth-ave. The meeting was suggested immediately after the recent great demon stration at Carnegle Music Hall, where General Harrison opened the campaign in New-York. There were more than 32,000 requests for admissicn of the hall on that occasion, and, of course. many could not obtain tickets. Cooper Union is large, and many thousands have gathered there to hear speakers.

The arrangements for to-night's meeting provide free admission for all, and good seats for those who arrive early. Only platform tickets have been issued. These will be held by the vice-presidents of the meeting. Senator John W. Thurston, of Nebraska, whose address to-night is awaited with much interest, arrived last evening at the Fifth Avenue Hotel. Curtis Guild, jr., of Beston, another of the speakers, is expected in the city to-day. He took an active part in the campaign in Vermont just be fore the sweeping Republican victory.

Among those who will be present are a number of men prominent in various walks of life. nelius N. Bliss, president of the Republican Club, will preside. Seated with him on the platform will be some of the following vice-presidents:

GENERAL HARRISON SAYS HE WILL ENTER INTO NO DEBATE WITH TILLMAN.

Indianapolis, Sept. 4 (Special).-If any expectation that General Harrison would accept the unique challenge of Senator Tillman for a joint debate, preferably in Indianapolis, had existed, it may now be abandoned. The ex-President has paid no attention to the challenge. When the message was handed to him by a messenger from the telegraph canded to him by a messenger from the trespanding office, at his Adirondacks cottage, he was standing on the cottage wharf. The messenger had arrived by the morning steamer. The General tore open the envelope, adjusted his glasses and smiled as he read. Handing the message to Mr. Tibbott, his private secretary, to read, he remarked with a humorous play of features; "I can't enter into a contest with that man; I have no pitchfork."

The little key that opens the small padlock is the real thing that opens the massive door. The door that will withstand the attack of a crowbar opens readily with the proper use of a key one-thousandth part as big and strong. Big things are not always the most useful or the most effective. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are little, so small that forty of them will go into a vial no larger round than a lead pencil and two inches long. They are tiny, sugar-coated granules, but they do their work more effectively than nauseous doses a hundred times their bulk. They are for the cure of constipation. They cure headaches, biliousness, sour stomach, foul breath, height burn, palpitation of the heart and pimples, and they assist in the cure of almost every disease with which mankind is afflicted. No one can get well unless the regular, healthy action of the digestive organs is restored. The "Pellets" will do this. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative and two a mild cathartic. Without causing any pain, griping or any other unpleasantness, they will restore the natural action of the bowels, and when this is done their use may be discontinued. BRYAN'S "BLANKETY-BLANK."

WHY HE DOES NOT LIKE THE RAILWAY MEN'S SOUND-MONEY CLUB MOVEMENT. Mr. Bryan, making his first speech in Indiana at Elkhart on Thursday, took occasion to ridicule the organization of sound-money clubs among railway employes. He held in his hand, the dispatches say, a little yellow card, being a blank application for membership in one of the clubs, and he made fun of it. He wondered, he said, that they did not call the card a "blankety-blank-blank."

H. P. Robinson, of "The Railway Age," of Chicago, who is the originator of the Railway Men's Sound Money Club idea and is responsible for the yellow card was in New-York yesterday at the Holland House, in connection with the campaign. He left here last evening for Chicago.

"This is the card that Mr. Bryan objects to," Mr. Robinson said, handing The Tribune reporter a little yellow slip of paper, about 5x21/2 inches in size. The card is reproduced here:

APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP.

In the employ of the.

R'y, hereby make application for membership in the RAILWAY MEN'S SOUND MONEY CLUB of and do hereby pledge myself to use my vote and influence for the defeat of the Free Coinage of Silver at the forthcoming National election, believing that such Free Coinage of Silver would be injurious to my personal interests as an earner of wages as well as disastrous to the United States as a Nation.

"It is not strange," Mr. Robinson said, "that Mr. Bryan despises those slips, because 100,000 of them have already been signed by railway employes all over the country, and they are signing them at the rate of about 10,000 a day. Mr. Bryan need not give himself any uneasiness about their being too blankety-blank-blank. They are being filled very rapidly, and every one that is filled means another vote for I will undertake to furnish Mr. Bryan and every one that is filled means another vote for McKinley. I will undertake to furnish Mr. Bryan with a stock of 500,000 of them by Election Day, and not a blank in all the lot.

"The proposition which confronts the railway employe is too plain a one. Does he want his wages paid in 32-cent dollars? That is the whole question. Railway companies could not increase their rates under free silver. Their expenses would certainly be increased enormously—in the interest charges on their gold obligations and in the price of materials and supplies. They would have less money to spend in wages. Employees would probably get fewer dollars than they do now. They certainly could not get more—and every dollar would only be worth one-half as much. What has the railway employe to gain by free silver?

"There is no kind of an argument that the silver orators can possibly make to railway men. The whole case is against them on its face. So, when Mr. Bryan refers to railway men at all texcept when, as at Madison Square, he makes misstatements about railway rates) he makes no attempt to argue. There are $60,000 railway men in the country, and in no other class nor in any other country coul you find $60,000 men of equal average intelligence, They may go to see Bryan and will laugh when he cracks lokes—just as they go to a minstrel show or to see the dog-faced boy. Then they go off and sign the blankety-blank-blank yellow card. They do not want 50-cent dollars when the paycar comes along. They don't get too many dollars, any way; and they want what they do get to be good.

"Mr. Pryan talks of the companies 'intimidating' and 'coercing' their men to sign those yellow cards. Yellow fiddlesticks and jackets'. I started the railway candpaign, and know exactly what has been going on. The only 'coercion' which the railway employe feels is the coercion of his own reason, and the only thing that 'intimidates' him is the prospect of having the purchasing power of hits pay cut in two. The railway employe is using his head in this campaign and in honor of McKinley and Hobart, the battery organization of the Murray Hill Republican Club, 100 strong, turned out last night under Captain Williamson, and, dragging a sixteen-pound howitzer by a long rope, after the style of the old-fashioned fire-engine, made a tour of an extensive district about the clubrooms, at Forty-second-st. and Seventh-ave. It was planned to have the McKinley Bicycle Club join in the parade, but the latter failed to appear. At 8:30 the procession started from the front of the clubrooms. A fife and drum corps led the way, followed by two carriages, containing Martin Mauer, president of the club; Senator Pavey, Assemblymen Laimbeer and Murphy, Alderman Robsemblymer Laimbeer and Murphy, Alderman Rob-inson, John Sabine Smith, William B. Bagg, James W. Perry and William Donavan. Behind the car-riages came the battery, which, in uniforms of white and gold, made a picturesque sight. Each man carried a red, white or bine lantern in the hand that was not tugging at the long leading strings of the howitzer, which was decorated with the club's banner. On the return to the clubrooms a supper was served and brief speeches were made.

A LANTERN PARADE.

THE MURRAY HILL REPUBLICAN BATTERY TURNS OUT IN FORCE.

The officers of the Murray Hill Club are: Martin Maner, president; A. I. Hagar vice-presidents; E. G. Tilson, secretary, and Robert Sweeny, treasurer.

VIEWS OF WESTERN FARMERS.

LETTER FROM JESSE MACY, PROFESSOR OF POLITICAL SCIENCE IN IOWA COLLEGE

D. O. Eshbaugh, the president of the New-Engrecently wrote a letter on the condition of farmers West, which was published in The Tribune. The letter has been republished in a number of Western newspapers, and it caused Jesse Macv. professor of political science in Iowa College, to write a letter to Mr. Eshbaugh on the same subject. Professor Macy is the author of the text book "Our Constitution," which is widely used in the schools He was a farmer's boy, and he is a close observer. His letter to Mr. Eshbaugh is as follows:

He was a farmer's boy, and he is a close observer. His letter to Mr. Eshbaugh is as follows:

My Dear Eshbaugh: Your letter in The Tribune does the business. It has been copied into "The Marshall Times-Republican." and I presume into scores of other papers. If the Eastern press reflected a tithe of the political sense which is manifested by the lowa farmers we would have a political milennium right off.

Robert Meredith was an original bed-rock Granger. Later he was a Peter Cooper Greenbacker. A few years ago he went around the world at an expense of $60 above earnings by the way. He became convinced that right here is the place for the farmer to stick. He borrowed money and bought land to the extent of his credit. He and his brother owe Iowa College $22,000. Day before yesterday he was in town to see if the college would receive the money on the part not due. He says he can get a loan so as to reduce the rate to fit, ner cent. Robert says he is going to yote for McKinley. He believes in the gold standard. He says if they p.ss a free silver law he will pay his debits in the cheapest legal dollars he can get, and it will not trouble als consclence a particle, He thinks contracts, in the absence of specifications, are sublect on both sides to such changes. In his view, it would not be dishonest to pass a free silver law he will pay his debits in the cheapest legal dollars he can get, and it will not trouble als consclence a particle, He thinks contracts, in the absence of specifications, are sublect on both sides to such changes. In his view, it would not be dishonest to pass a free silver law he will pay his debits in the cheapest legal dollars he can get, and it will not trouble als consclence a particle, He thinks that says he can make money on low prices are not in the nature of the case a calamity. He thinks that even perpetually fall-ine prices would not be an unmixed evil.

These are, it seems to me, typical cases, Very cordially yours.

ACTIVE WORK IN TENNESSEE. Nashville, Tenn., Sept. 4 (Special).-The Republican State Executive Committee is making arrangeents for an aggressive campaign in this State. G. Tillman, the nomince for Governor, who will begin a joint debate in ten speeches with ex-Gov-ernor Robert L. Taylor, the Democratic nomine, at Jonesboro on September 15, will deliver speeches in nearly every county. Other speakers will be put in the field at once. Some of the best speakers in the country will speak here in the interest of Mr. McKinley, and it is intended to arrange dates for them as early as possible. A conference of leading Republicans was held at headquarters to-day, and the reports received from various sections were en-couraging.

CHEERING REPORTS FROM THE WEST. Chicago, Sept. 4.-Ex-Congressman Benjamin Butterworth, of Ohio, called at the Republican Na-tional Headquarters yesterday on his way to Moline, III., where he is to speak on Saturday. place Mr. Butterworth will go to South Dakota, callers. He was full of enthusiasm over the situation in his State (Wisconsin).

Cheering reports continue to come in to the commercial travellers' headquarters, though many "knights of the grip" write very candidly of the existence of free-silver sentiment in portions of Michigan and Iowa which they have visited, and call for literature to be sent there.

THE REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

There was a large and enthusiastic meeting of the McKinley League at the State Club, No. 2 East Twenty-third-st., last evening, at which the present condition of the campaign was discussed, and several ringing speeches were made. John E. Milholland presided, and made an earnest address, advocating the adoption of resolutions declaring that it is the purpose of the League to support

h lovalty and devotion the Saratoga nomina es, and pledging its most active and determined efforts to the election of Black, Woodruff and Vann, in spite of the "ungracious and thankless" character of the "local conditions."

The declaration of the League was as follows The declaration of the League was as follows:

The McKinley League of the State of New-York believes that it is the duty of all patriotic Américan citizens to protect the National honor and further the cause of protection to American industry by making the election of McKinley and Hobart monumental in its completeness. The assaults upon the very foundations of society now being made by Democrats of the baser sort in alliance with the appropriate of all actabilished government upon the very foundations of society now being made by Democrats of the baser sort in alliance with the opponents of all established government must be repelled with such emphasis as to give assurance to the world that in this free country there is no room for Amarchy or dishonesty.

With such an issue at stake, the League feels that all minor-considerations should give way, and that feelings and resentments justified by patriotism and self-respect ought to be sacrificed upon the altar of the highest good for our country.

It therefore calls upon its members throughout the State to put forth their best efforts in the campaign for the whole Republican ticket of New-York. Let every member work for Black, Woodruff and Vann with the same superb energy and courage which he showed in behalf of William McKinley before and after the National Convention. They are candidates of the highest character and ability, and in working to put them at the head of the government of the Empire State no Republican or patriotic Democrat is doing anything more than his duty.

The Nation needs the services of every Republican this fall: they should be given cheerfully, even where the conditions are not pleasant or congenial. Let it not be said that the friends of William McKinley were backward in his cause because the local conditions were ungracious and thankless. Let it rather be said that the men who worked fist for McKinley worked until the end, through fair weather and foul, and did for the cause whatever they found needed to be done.

The League will hold its first mass-meeting in The League will hold its list mass and has New-York since the meeting of the Republican State Convention on Thursday evening next at Cooper Union, which will be addressed by ex-Sentor Warner Miller. State Senator Frank D. Pavey and Terence V. Powderly, former General Master Workman of the Knights of Labor.

THE HON. WILLIAM SULZER'S OPINION. Washington, Sept. 4.-The Hon. William Sulzer, of cratic clubs: "An invitation has been sent out from here to all clubs of the State to send delegates to a convention to be held at Buffalo on September 17, for the purpose of forming to ratify the nomination of Bryan and Sewall an indorse the Chicago platform. The campaign in the State is progressing quietly, but energetically. It is being made by the clubs and by labor organ It is being made by the clubs and by labor organizations and the friends of the plain people generally, regardless of the attitude of prominent State leaders. I have made several trips through the State and have had long talks with prominent Democrats in all parts, and I believe that with the proper efforts the State of New-York can be carried this fall. After the State convention, no doubt the campaign will assume a more enthusiastic aspect, and many who are now stient will then come to the front."
